Holding, containing and boundarying are not things that we do to clients. The process needs to be actively shared, negotiated and dialogical. We can’t just decide to “hold” the client. The client has to accept the holding; they need at some level to take in our witnessing and containing presence and to

Will your anchor hold in the storms of life, When the clouds unfold their wings of strife? When the strong tides lift, and the cables strain, Will your anchor drift or firm remain? We have an anchor that keeps the soul Stedfast and sure while the billows roll, Fastened to the Rock which cannot move, Grounded firm and deep in the Savior’s love.

Hymn: Will your anchor hold in the storms of life

all happen “ like we used to, or think we used to (ie. setting up rooms, launching and leading every new initiative or ministry, or even reviving all our previous ministries).
